

Music Education Matters – 18th May 2018 Stands Available

Would your organisation like to promote its work at Music Education Matters?

We have a limited number of stands available for hire to groups and organisations involved in music education. These will be in a foyer space of Glasgow Royal Concert Hall and made available to our wide range of delegates including Arts Organisations, Community Musicians, Local Authorities, Composers, Researchers, Instrumental Instructors, Collaborators and ASN Teachers.

For £145, you will receive

- One stand (6ft x 2.5ft with table cloth and power available)
- The inclusion of inserts/brochures into MEM delegate bags
- Attendance to conference sessions for up to two members of staff working at the stand
- Lunch for up to two members of staff working at the stand

To register your interest please contact info@enterprisemusicscotland.com with the following information

- Name of organisation
- Some details of the work your organisation does
- The number of staff members who will be working at the event stand

The deadline for registration is 31st March 2018
